

RFB&D's Learning Through Listening® Library Includes Thousands of Titles!

The Research is Clear...Student Achievement Improves with Audio Textbooks.

Our latest research shows that when students with print and learning disabilities used audio textbooks:

- 76% improved reading comprehension
- 52% improved reading accuracy
- 41% increased reading rates
- 61% increased self-confidence

With RFB&D's AudioPlus® books on CD, you'll find the textbook titles you need to give your students with print disabilities full access to core instructional content.

Our library offers both basal textbooks and many supplemental reading materials most frequently used in K-12 classrooms and at the college level.

You'll find textbooks and supplemental book titles at all grade levels:

- Elementary School
- Middle School
- High School
- Higher Education

You'll be able to locate and borrow titles:

- By grade level
- By subject area

You'll find resources from the publishers you know and trust:

- Holt, Rinehart and Winston
- McGraw-Hill
- Prentice Hall
- McDougal Littell
- Scott Foresman
- Harcourt
- Houghton Mifflin
- And many more...
